LeedsBID is once again shining the spotlight on the city's apprenticeship opportunities by recruiting a second to its team.

Verity Wilson, 18, joined late last month as the Business Administrator Apprentice and is settling well into life at LeedsBID.

"So far I have enjoyed seeing all the work LeedsBID does and the positive energy which I have been surrounded by since starting my role. I am excited to continue my Business Admin Apprenticeship, and I look forward to being involved in exciting projects in the future."

Verity is providing day to day support to the Office Manager, Rachel Robertshaw, by providing a meet and greet to office visitors, managing LeedsBID's meeting room facilities, alongside taking care of office administration.

Solomon is a free digital service available to all levy paying businesses.

It provides real-time key city intelligence such as footfall stats & trends and is a communications hub for sharing information across the city.
